Memberships, nothing new to report.

Book sale, coming quickly, all help was and will always be appreciated, as stated last month, sign up sheets were in the library.

Birthday Club is moving along, no new members at this time.

Old business:

Bike rack is wonderful, thanks to Ian and Dan for all their help.

Magna tiles, a great big thank you from ET. A major attraction. Everybody enjoys working with them.

Book sale flyer for community posting. A big thank you to Colette for the cute design, great work as always.

Sign up sheets are at the counter., people needed for set up and tear down. Thanks to all who have signed up.

Six (6) boxes of books shipped out on Easter Monday to Better World Books. A special thanks to the Gregg's for all their dedication and time.

May photo posting, ML will print the photos and assemble the display board. FMPL will assist with any costs for printing.

Go tourney update: Colette's team came in last. A great learning experience and always room for improvement.

Cord covers update: this was a failed attempt, it was not what ET had thought it was. It just did not work for the purpose. Leslie Hansetter will assist with finding and procuring what is desired.

New business:

Bike safety is scheduled to run with the City of Seymour rummage sale. Books will be distributed by ET. She will need to order an additional lot of books, and has requested $100.00 from the Friends. Motion was made by Holly C. to approve the needed funds for the books for the bike safety day, seconded by Kris P., approved by all.

Happy belated birthday to Colette. 4/14/15, the big 50!!!!

Short report by ET about the CCBC/Owls field trip by ET. This trip gave ET a complete list of children's books for reading, and she has stated that her list is continuing to grow, great learning adventure.(Cooperative Children's Book Center)

Fox Cities Festival 4/20-4/26. Holly C, has the flyer for future info. We actually made it into this one.

Rehab of the marquee sign: Paul G has designed a new sign but is still working on his proto type, he estimates that this should last 15-20 years, at a cost of 250-350 dollars. These are estimated at this time. A motion was made by Holly C. for Paul G. to purchase the needed materials for the building of the sign up to $350, seconded by Elizabeth M., approved by all.
